

MEDGEN

Developing Medical Genetics Education Through Curriculum Reforms
And Establishment Of Postgraduate Training Programs

Plymouth University
Training on Genetic Counselling at Technion, Israel Institute of Technology, Israel
17-18 February, 2016

	Topic	Timing	Who is leading?
17 February 2016	Aim of the day	09:30-10:00	Heather Skirton
	Introductions of all present Onco-equip and gen-equip
	Revision of basic counselling techniques. Practice the basic skills together.	10:00-12:00	Heather Skirton, Selina Goodman
	Lunch	12:00-13:00
	Dealing with uncertainty including inconclusive results or variable prognosis. Nomenclature Known unknowns, unknown unknowns. What makes it difficult?	13:00-14:45	Heather Skirton, Selina Goodman, Leigh Jackson, Peter Lunt
	Incidental findings. Finding the right approach Discussion of two cases	14:45-16:00
18 February 2016	Incidental findings. Finding the right approach Discussion of two cases	09:30-11:00	Heather Skirton, Selina Goodman, Leigh Jackson, Peter Lunt
	Using transactional analysis in practice. Participants practice.	11:00-12:00	Heather Skirton
	Lunch	12:00-13:00
	Dealing with uncertainty including inconclusive results or variable prognosis. How to handle it in practice Role play in triads.	13:00-14:30	Heather Skirton, Selina Goodman, Leigh Jackson, Peter Lunt
	Professional issues Boundaries and how we deal with them Peer support – using the Manchester method	14:30-15:30	Heather Skirton, Selina Goodman, Leigh Jackson, Peter Lunt
	General discussion and close of the training	15:30-16:00	Heather Skirton, Selina Goodman, Leigh Jackson, Peter Lunt